I'm Stepping Out Into the Unknown

Hebrews Chapter 11

As many of you know, I have spent this year praying and believing in God for a house in Branson, Missouri. Hebrews 11 tells the story of many men and women who stepped out in faith with God, even when they did not know what the end result would be. By faith, Abel offered a pleasing sacrifice to God. By faith, Enoch was taken into heaven. By faith, Noah built an ark for the coming flood. By faith, Abraham and Sara believed God when He told them that Sara would have a son. I have been walking out in faith this year. I had no way of knowing how or when a house would be provided, but I believed that God had given me this vision, and those who have faith in Him are never disappointed.

Friends, it is my joy to announce to you today that God has provided me with a beautiful piece of land in Branson! It's in a perfect location close to banks, stores, and lots of people. I just signed the contract on November 18, and we will close on December 19. In his goodness, God even provided me with favor for the closing cost for the property. I can't thank you all enough for your prayers and support! I now ask that you continue praying that the funds will come in to build the house. Anyone who contributes to the building of the house will have their names written on a plaque on the wall in the foyer of the new home. Every little bit helps. Links to my PayPal and Go Fund Me accounts can be found above. I am deeply grateful for any donations I receive! I am still looking for a TV show or organization to help with this project. Thank you Rhonda and Terry for standing and believing in this dream. They will be the builders.

I would also love to be able to go and do the closing in person. I know that it would be possible to do it by mail, but this has been such a long and incredible journey that it would mean a lot to me to be able to do this in person. I would need to leave on Dec 15 and return around Dec 20 or 21. I would be flying from Dallas to Springfield, MO. If anyone has some airline miles saved up or another way to help me get there, please contact me by phone or email ASAP. I would greatly appreciate it. What a Christmas gift the Lord has given me!

Speaking of Christmas, there are two questions people have been asking me. One: What do you want for Christmas? There is a wish list on my website www.theamazingquilter.com. Two: When can I purchase a quilt with a credit card? You can do it now! For now, you can call me or email me to pay by credit card. In the near future, you will be able to pay with a credit card on my website. It's in the works! Remember – if you would like to purchase a quilt for Christmas, I need your order in by Dec 10, so you will receive it by Christmas. I do send quilts by UPS. I have run out of time to do custom-made quilts, but I will be able to do those after the first of the year.

How about the festival? It was fantastic! Everything went so smoothly. We had seven volunteers, a warm beautiful day, and lots of fans. Pete and Aida – the quilt racks were PERFECT! Thank you. Can't wait until I can use these in my sewing room or gift shop. I am still working on my speaking engagement schedule for the coming year. Right now, I am scheduled to speak at the Brazos Bluebonnet Quilt Guild, in Bryan, Texas on Valentine's Day. So bring your sweetheart, and we'll have a great evening! Can't wait! If you would like to schedule a speaking engagement for your school, church, or organization, please call me to set up a date.

Well I have to congratulate some of my friends! Remember when I spent Christmas with Kim and Bill Giroux last year? Their oldest daughter Katherine just got engaged to Jeff, a great, godly man. See what God can do in a year? Now remember, Katherine, to put bells on your bouquet if I come to the wedding so I can try to catch it! If I'm not able to go to the wedding, Krystina, her younger sister, will have to catch it for me haha ☺. This is a very special family.

I am so incredibly thankful and praise God for each and every person who has come and gone in my life. God is so good. Remember He is always there all the time, day and night. Just call out to Him. Again, I thank all of you for your prayers, support, and friendship. Remember, this is the greatest season of the year. Please forgive one another and put the past behind you as we have a wonderful future to look forward to. Jeremiah 29:11 I love all of you so very much and look forward to hearing from each and every one of you. Feel free to pass this newsletter on to anyone you would like. May you all be blessed and have a very merry Christmas!

Love,
Diane Rose
